YEW TREE FEIS

“Every child a winner”

Dear Principal/Parent/Guardian,

Would you like to win £150/£100 for your school?

Encourage your children to enter in the 10th Annual Cross Community Feis to be held in the Acorn Centre, Crosskeys Road, Ahoghill on Thursday 26th, Friday 27th and Saturday 28th May 2011. A points system will decide the winning school.

The Yew Tree Feis tries to link in with the NI Curriculum, we have chosen the topic “Wildlife”. Creation of Poems and Art entries and poems for recitation are all based on this topic. No preparation is required by schools. Pupils should use their Public Speaking, Drama, Singing and Music from previous competitions and examinations. Your school could do a lot with £150/£100.

As this event has proved to be very popular and has been well supported in the past it is hoped that this year will be no exception. All primary school children are encouraged to participate especially those who have no previous performing experience.

All parents, grandparents, friends etc. are welcome to attend.

This booklet contains details and copies of poems, however information may be obtained from St Paul’s Primary School Ahoghill telephone 25871613, at www.crda-online.com or telephone 25878111 or 25871588.

ALL COMPETITION ENTRIES £2.

SOMETHING TOLD THE WILD GEESE

Something told the wild geese
It was time to go,
Though the fields lay golden
Something whispered, ‘Snow!’
Leaves were green and stirring,
Berries lustre-glossed,
But beneath warm feathers
Something cautioned, ‘Frost!’

All the sagging orchards
Steamed with amber spice,
But each wild beast stiffened
At remembered ice.
Something told the wild geese
It was time to fly -
Summer sun was on their wings,
Winter in their cry.

P5&6 THE GREEDY LITTLE PIG

A Little pig lived in a sty,
He fed on meals three times a day,
He drank sweet milk from a shining trough
And slept at night on a bed of hay.

This little pig once left his sty
And roam'd three fields or more away,
He found the slope where the oak trees grew
And where the plump brown acorns lay.
And he ate, and he ate,
As little pigs do;
He ate and he ate,
The whole day through.
Then he came back home to his bed of hay,
Grunt-grunt-grunting all the way.

THE BLACKBIRD

In the far corner,
close by the swings,
every morning
a blackbird sings.

His bill's so yellow,
his coat's so black,
that he makes a fellow
whistle back. HUMBERT WOLFE

POEM

MICE

I think mice
Are rather nice.

Their tails are long,
Their faces small,
They haven't any
Chins at all.
Their ears are pink,
Their teeth are white,
They run about
The house at night.
They nibble things
They shouldn't touch
And no one seems
To like them much.

But I think mice
Are nice. ROSE FYLEMAN
